DEFINITIONS

Minor:	A person under 18 years of age. For the purposes of this survey, do not include dependent minors (300 WIC) pursuant to Section 206 WIC and those minors transferred or waived to adult criminal court.
Temporary Holding:	A local detention facility constructed after January 1, 1978, used for the confinement of persons for 24 hours or less pending release, transfer to another facility, or appearance in court.
Lockup:	A room or secure enclosure under the control of a sheriff or other peace officer that is primarily for the temporary confinement of adults upon arrest. A minor may be securely confined in a lockup only as provided in Section 207.1(d) WIC.
Type I:	A local detention facility used for the detention of persons for not more than 96 hours, excluding holidays, after booking. May also detain persons on court order either for their own safekeeping or sentenced to a city jail as an inmate worker and may house inmate workers sentenced to the county jail provided such placement in the facility is made on a voluntary basis on the part of the inmate.
Administrative Station:	Administrative Stations are law enforcement facilities that do not have a locked holding room. These may include, but are not limited to: store-fronts, substations, and some police departments where the public is served, law enforcement officers write reports, use the telephone, interview victims and witnesses, and conduct other administrative functions.
Jail:	An adult detention facility, the purpose of which is to detain sentenced and non-sentenced adults (not including inmate workers). These facilities are defined as Type II, III, or IV local adult detention facilities as defined in Section 1006, Title 15, California Code of Regulations. *Caution: Minors may generally not be detained in jails but may be detained in buildings that contain jails – see Section 207.1 WIC for exception.
Secure Detention:	Occurs when a minor (under 18) is locked in a room/enclosure and/or secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object while in custody in a law enforcement facility (which includes police or sheriff's stations that contains a lockup) – for any length of time.
Non-secure Detention:	Occurs when a minor's freedom is controlled by the staff of the facility; and (1) the minor is under constant personal visual observation and supervision by staff of the law enforcement facility; (2) the minor is not locked in a room or enclosure; and (3) the minor is not physically secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object.
